

The Coventry Room

This space is named after Henry Coventry, who lived at West Lodge in the seventeenth century and was Secretary of State to Charles II.

It features its own conservatory, air conditioning, ceiling fans, and has direct access to the bar terrace and to the 35 acres of the Beale Arboretum surrounding the hotel.

Capacities

Theatre Style	20+2 Top
U-Shape	9
Boardroom	12

The Conservatory can accommodate a further 12 persons.
Maximum capacity does not allow for projection equipment.

Features

Includes The Coventry Conservatory, direct access to the grounds.

Suitable for

Smaller boardrooms, intimate private dining.

KEY	P power sockets
------------	---------------------------